

Complete Anatomy Training Session

The NKUA Library and Information Centre in collaboration with Elsevier invite students, faculty members and researchers to a training session on Complete Anatomy, the leading 3D human anatomy platform, available to the academic community through the HEAL-Link consortium license.

During the session, participants will learn how to:

- Activate their access using the institutional license code
- Explore detailed 3D models of the body systems and perform virtual dissections
- Use study tools such as quizzes, notes and custom views
- Integrate the platform into teaching and self-study on computer, tablet and mobile

Three identical sessions will be offered, so you can attend the one that suits you best:

Date	Wednesday, October 7, 2026
